Widely described as one of the most enchanting places in the world, Bled has far more to offer than just natural sights. A romantic walk or a horse-drawn carriage ride around the lake, a trip to Bled Island on one of the traditional “pletna” boats, a visit to the magnificent castle ruling the cliff above the lake and, last but not least, a slice of the creamiest and most famous Bled dessert, the Original Bled Cream Cake. Bled is a superlative holiday destination that will enchant you in every season!

Juliana Trail

Although the natural wonders of the Julian Alps are truly breath-taking, they are not the only special feature on this long-distance circular trail. You will also explore the history of ironwork, learn about the importance of beekeeping and forest conservation, try typical local dishes, and learn about the places that were once home to great Slovenian writers and poets. For more information about the Juliana Trail, scan the QR code.

THE LONG-DISTANCE JULIANA HIKING TRAIL

The Juliana Trail is a circular 267-km, long-distance hiking trail. It is divided into 16 daily stages (the length of each stage is 18-25 km). The route leads through valleys and forests, over mountain passes, and along the rivers Sava and Soča. From Bled, it is possible to access 8 stages of this circular route, all of which are approximately 15-20 kilometres long and require between 4 and 6 hours of walking.

STAGE 1

This stage leads from Kranjska Gora to Mojstrana and is moderately demanding. It first runs along the river Sava Dolinka, running along the border of the Triglav National Park almost throughout. It then leads through Gozd Martuljek to the vicinity of the Martuljek Waterfalls, along a quiet stretch to the Slovenian Mountaineering Museum at the entrance to the Vrata Valley.

STAGE 2

This stage leads from Mojstrana through the neighbouring village of Dovje beneath the slopes of the Karawank mountains to the ironworking town of Jesenice. It mostly runs along gravel roads and cart paths, with the last part leading along an old mining route. The stage ends at the Stara Sava museum.

STAGE 3

This stage starts in the ironworking town of Jesenice, leads through the Dobravško polje field, and across the Sava Dolinka river to the villages beneath mount Stol, whose goods and services are mainly based on cultural and beekeeping products. The stage ends in the village of Begunje, where you can visit the Avsenik Museum (Oberkrainer music).

STAGE 4

This is a mostly flat stage that connects Begunje, a village beneath the Karawank mountains, Radovljica, a cultural centre with a rich tradition of honey dough making and a chocolate festival, and Bled, one of the most recognisable places at the eastern entrance to the Julian Alps. The stage is mostly flat, but interesting because of the many natural and cultural attractions along the way.

STAGE 5

This stage starts at Lake Bled and passes through Gorje and the Pokljuka Gorge before leading to some steep climbs over Kranjska Planina and Javornik into the heart of the Pokljuka Plateau, ending at Goreljek. The stage is long and there are no supply points on the way from Gorje to Pokljuka, so it is necessary to provide yourself with a snack and sufficient fluids.

STAGE 6

This stage first leads through the forests and mountains of the Pokljuka plateau, then descends towards the villages of Gorjuše and Koprivnik, and from there to Jereka in the Upper Bohinj Valley, through many old Bohinj villages that today are engaged in tourism, cheesemaking and forestry. The stage ends in the village of Stara Fužina, which is also known for the nearby Mostnica troughs and the Alpine Dairy Museum.

STAGE 7

This shorter stage leads from Stara Fužina through Ribčev Laz by Lake Bohinj, on gravel roads and paths, through the scenic village of Dobrava, to Bohinjska Bistrica. An interesting cheese trail that leads from mountain pasture to mountain pasture, and on which you will be greeted by many "Bohinj Cows (Cika) - a hardy type of alpine cow. These are a trademark of Bohinj, as are many local products of local crafts under the "Bohinjsko / From Bohinj" brand.

STAGE 8

The stage from Bohinjska Bistrica to Podbrda takes you over the ancient Vrh Bače mountain pass, which connected Bohinj and Primorska for many centuries before the advent of roads and railways. From Bohinjska Bistrica, follow the signs for the village of Nemški Rovt. The mountain trail then leads to the Vrh Bače mountain pass, where you can find bunkers and the remains of military barracks. From Sedlo, the path then steeply descends to the village of Bača and further down to Podbrdo, the largest town in the Baška grapa valley.

RIKLI TRAIL HIKING PROGRAMME

The Swiss healer, Arnold Rikli, recognised the healing benefits of Bled as far back as the 19th century, when he built the first natural healing and revivification resort in Bled. He based his approach around rest, healthy eating and exercise - the very things that are still the foundation of a healthy life today. In the Rikli Trail program, we focus on the area of movement. We will take you along the trails where Bled's seekers of wellness already walked barefoot long ago. As for the wellness and culinary aspects of Rikli's concept, you can enjoy these at any of our hotels.

Who was Arnold Rikli?

Arnold Rikli was the pioneer of wellness treatment in Bled. He was impressed by the natural features of Bled - the freshness of the air, the cleanliness of the lake, and the mild alpine climate. He was convinced that these, in addition to a healthy diet, plenty of exercise, and plenty of rest, were the reason he recovered from a long-lasting illness. Therefore, he began to lead many followers towards Lake Bled, where he taught them to eat light, often vegetarian, food, to get up before sunrise, to climb the surrounding hills barefoot on an empty stomach, to bathe in the lake, and to rest a lot. You will find his approaches adapted to modern times in the facilities and services of the Rikli Balance Hotel.

HINT !

Rikli's relaxation park

Next to the Rikli Balance Hotel is Rikli's relaxation park. In it, you can perform the exercises that Arnold Rikli and his followers practiced in order to relax, calm down, and generally feel better. You can relieve your stress on Rikli's barefoot trail, and escape your daily worries by retreating into nature, where you can embrace a tree and restore your well-being. By practising yoga in the wonderful environment of the park, you will calm your thoughts, relax your body, and regain well-being. At your request, we can also organize guided morning exercise sessions prepared according to Rikli's concept.

RIKLI'S TRAIL TO STRAŽA

Difficulty: easy

Trail length: 2.5 km

Trail duration: 1 h

Trail description: The Straža hill rises above the south-eastern shore of Lake Bled and was already considered a popular excursion point during the time of Arnold Rikli. The trail starts at the Bled fitness promenade, formerly Rikli's trail, and leads through a forest and up some stone steps to the top of the cable car line. Straža has as many as six vantage points, all of which offer beautiful views of Bled and its surrounding area in every direction. The route can be completed as a round trip along the macadam cart path that passes through the ski area. In winter, Straža offers evening skiing and sledding, while in summer you can spice up your walk with some exercise on the Bled Fitness Promenade, or enjoy a visit to Adventure Park Bled or the Land of Folk Tales.

The trail begins with a climb towards the hamlets of Zaboršt and Zatrata, and from there it follows the forest path to the highest point of Iz Križev, opening up a beautiful view of the landscape, especially that of the Blejski kot basin. You can then return either across pastures or by road. The route can also be continued to the Rčitno mountain pasture, from where it circles back to Bled via Slamnik and Bohinjska Bela, or else continues towards the Pokljuka plateau.

RIKLI'S WALK TO BLEED CASTLE VIA VIŠČE

EVERYTHING FOR YOUR RELAXATION AND WELL-BEING

RELAXATION

ŽIVA WELLNESS CENTRE Rikli Balance Hotel★★★★s

The natural healer Arnold Rikli, who founded a healing centre in Bled in the 19th century, once wrote, "Our every thought, breath and heartbeat, our every feeling, conviction and movement sends energy signals through the body that influence our entire being." The Živa Wellness centre follows these tenets by offering you a wide range of relaxing massage treatments, baths, body and facial care treatments, and saunas. The concept is also complemented by an Alpine wellness programme, and the use of local ingredients (e.g. spruce tips, honey from Carniolan bees).

The Živa Wellness Centre also features a large thermal pool complex with a wonderful view of Lake Bled. When swimming to the edge of the pool, you can rest your chin on your hands, look ahead, and truly feel like you are in a fairy tale. Your mind will become calm, your stresses will wane, and only beauty will remain. You can also enjoy the warm massage pools on the upper level, while families will love going down the water slide and splashing around in the kiddie pool.

SPA PARK Hotel Park★★★★

Just like everything in Hotel Park, the Spa Park makes you feel the harmony of water and forest at every step. These elements have a beneficial effect on your health and well-being, leaving you calm, relaxed and energised. Spa Park's facilities and services includes various massages, baths, rituals for couples, and detoxification programmes. We weave the story of water and forest into our wellness programmes using exclusively Slovenian products, as we want our guests to have an authentic local experience.

You can enjoy a swim in the panoramic thermal pool to relax your muscles. After swimming, immerse yourself in the panoramic view of Lake Bled from the comfortable wooden loungers by the pool. You can also enjoy the view from the outdoor terrace, or from one of our magnificent panoramic saunas.

Rikli's culinary experience Rikli Balance Hotel★★★★s

Because we are what we eat, Arnold Rikli was a proponent of ascetic and vegetarian diets. His menu consisted of local, fresh, healthy ingredients, which are also what can be found at the Rikli Balance Hotel restaurant. Some of the foods that you'll find on our breakfast and dinner menus would be approved by Rikli himself, including honeycomb, dried fruit, nuts, millet porridge, and local cheeses for breakfast, and various vegetable soups, roasted vegetables, salads, potatoes, polenta, and compotes for dinner.

SPRING ON LAKE BLEED SEE

Spring is probably one of the best times to explore not only Bled and its surroundings, but all of Slovenia. Even world famous sights such as Postojna Cave and the Karst's region's Lipica Stud Farm are just an hour's drive away. An internationally recognized master chef

The culinary range in our hotels in Bled is overseen by chef Simon Bertonec. His creations reflect the rich knowledge he's acquired working in prestigious restaurants throughout Europe. He studied under acclaimed chefs like Gordon Ramsay, and the Lille based French chef Marc Meurin, who boasts two Michelin stars. He has also worked at the Esszimmer BMW Welt restaurant in Munich, which was awarded one Michelin star. And under his leadership, the Julijana Restaurant, which is located in Grand Hotel Toplice, received the prestigious Michelin Plate and Recommended by Michelin awards from the Michelin Guide Slovenia.

THE GASTRONOMY OF SLOVENIA – LOCAL AND TRADITIONAL

Due to its location at the crossroads of various European gastronomic worlds, the culinary influences of different regions come together in Slovenia, all intertwined with local tradition and the character of each individual area. In 24 gastronomic regions and 3 wine regions, you can find more than 400 typical local and regional dishes and drinks.

Slovenia on the map of Michelin destinations

The quality of Slovenian gastronomy has also been recognized by the most prestigious gastronomic guide, the Michelin Guide, which included Slovenia among its new destinations in 2020, when it also awarded Michelin stars and other Michelin Guide awards to talented Slovenian chefs for the first time. At the same time, the Guide stated that "because of the talented chefs who transform ingredients of the highest quality into unique culinary creations, Slovenia is a 'must go' destination". One of the venues that can now boast of a prestigious Michelin award is the Julijana Restaurant at our Grand Hotel Toplice in Bled.

Unforgettable culinary experiences in Bled

Indulge in the multi-course Bled Local Selection menu at the Julijana Restaurant, or treat yourself to a gourmet picnic in a boat with a picnic basket prepared for you by a Michelin Plate awarded chef. In April, you can visit the Chocolate Festival in nearby Radovljica, and in December you can taste Slovenian potica cake on the famous island in the middle of the lake. You can visit local beekeepers or see how honey dough products are made. You can also taste excellent local brandies or visit Bled market, which is stocked with various local products and produce.

Open kitchens, festivals, and celebrations

Unique culinary combinations, a sustainable approach, and the indispensable taste of home-made products are the foundations of Slovenian cuisine, in part due to the preservation of tradition through these kinds of celebrations and festivals. In addition to the popular street festivals that take place in all major Slovenian cities, you can find authentic, fresh, local spring delicacies at exhibitions like Specialities of Slovenian Farms, the Salamijada festival, the olive oil festival, and the Easter Potica festival.

Sustainable gastronomy

Slovenia prides itself on the flourishing of sustainable gastronomy, which can be enjoyed in many restaurants, inns and tourist farms. Slovenia is also the proud bearer of the 2021 European Region of Gastronomy title. It won this title by enacting numerous sustainability measures, for its outstanding gastronomy and high quality local food, and for the exceptional pride and passion of everyone involved.

The first Original Bled Cream Cake was created almost 70 years ago in the confectionery of Hotel Park. You can try this dessert prepared according to the original recipe in all our hotels and restaurants in Bled.

Thanks to Sladogled, the ice cream flavour created in the pastry kitchen of Bled's Hotel Park, Bled won the title of the world's best ice cream destination in 2017.

TRIPS FROM BLEDED

BLEDED TOWN TOUR, INCLUDING BLEDED CASTLE AND BLEDED ISLAND (3 hours)

Get to know Bled from the vantage point of Bled Castle, which lords over the lake from atop a mighty cliff. In addition to the wonderful view, there are many other things to see at the castle - a museum, a printing press, a wine cellar, a herbal gallery, and a blacksmith's workshop. This is followed by a descent to the lake and a boat trip to Bled Island. The island on Lake Bled, with its small baroque church and famous wishing bell, is a stunning and very popular photographic motif.

KRANJSKA GORA AND PLANICA VALLEY (5.5 hours - approx. 80 km)

Drive to the Planica valley beneath the Ponce mountains, the cradle of the sport of ski jumping, and the place where world records are set. You can see the ski jumping hills, and the new sports centre, or take the chairlift up to the large ski flying hill and enjoy the magnificent view of the entire Planica valley. The nearby city of Kranjska Gora, best known as a winter sports centre, is also the centre of summer time alpine events, and is a true paradise for all nature lovers.

BOHINJ VALLEY IN TRIGLAV NATIONAL PARK WITH CHEESE TASTING (6 hours - approx. 60 km)

In addition to year-round peace and relaxation, Bohinj also offers many opportunities for an active holiday. The symbol of Bohinj, located in the Triglav National Park, is the glacial lake with the church of St. John the Baptist on its shore. On the opposite side of the lake, in the upper corner of the valley, the mighty 78-metre-high Savica waterfall rolls over the rocks, with a hiking trail including 553-steps leading to the top. In the Bohinj region, everything revolves around cheese, which visitors can also taste.

GOREJSKA A LITTLE DIFFERENTLY: Begunje – Radovljica – Brezje (6 hours - approx. 50 km)

In the old town centre of Radovljica, you can visit the Slovenian Beekeeping Museum, which is located within a baroque mansion, and which will introduce you to the rich Slovenian tradition of beekeeping dating from the 18th and 19th centuries. In nearby Brezje, a small village below the Karavanke mountains, stands the Mary, the Help of Christians Basilica, which is one of the most visited pilgrimage sites in Slovenia. The trip ends in Begunje - the birthplace of Oberkrainer folk music legend Slavko Avsenik - in the Avsenik museum, with its collection of vinyl records and musical instruments.

LJUBLJANA – 3-/4-DAY TRIP WITH CITY TOUR (7 hours – approx. 130 km)

In Ljubljana, the trip begins with a short drive through the city, and then a guided tour with visits to all the most important sights: Congress Square, Prešeren Square, the city cathedral, the city market, the town hall, the Cobblers' Bridge... After the tour, guests have some free time in the city for independent walks, a boat ride on the Ljubljanica river, or a trip to Ljubljana Castle by funicular.

POSTOJNA CAVE and PREDJAMA CASTLE (7.5 hours - approx. 240 km)

Postojna Cave is one of the most visited tourist caves in the world. The cave includes 20 kilometres of corridors, galleries, and halls, and boasts a unique wealth of stalactites. The tour of the cave starts with a train ride into its hidden underground world, and continues on foot to the most beautiful parts of the cave - the large concert hall, and a shimmering stalagmite called the Brilliant. The cave is also home to the only cave vertebrate in Europe, called the human fish or olm. Visiting the cave is not physically demanding (3 km by electric train and 1.5 km on foot). Near Postojna Cave stands one of the most picturesque buildings in Slovenia. Predjama Castle literally floats in the middle of a 123-metre-high rock wall and was built for the wayward, rebellious knight Erasmus.
